- Andrew is the best TA ever in all my classes. I don't think I am going to meet any TAs better than him. He is really care about how students think about the questions, and he gave "shot cut" to figure out how to solve the questions. To make sure students understood the materials, he gave some relative examples to help students understood the materials. I am so luck to let him be my TA
- Andrew's explanations really made understanding the material easier. He speaks very clearly and invites questions.
- Andy is the best. He makes things very clear and easy to understand. He would make a great economics professor.
- Forget being a TA, future students need you as a Professor!
- He is nice and well-prepared for sections. He even makes his own notes/answers for the problem sets. Appreciate his hard work and attitude. Would strongly recommend him.
- I believe without Chamberlain, I would have a significantly lower grade in the class. He's able to break down the material into simple models that are easy to follow along.
- I felt that Andrew's notes were the most helpful tool in understanding the material throughout this course. He provided step by step guidance and was extremely helpful during his office hours to go over any material any student needed help with. It was extremely valuable that he is very clear and effective in his teaching methods. He's a wonderful TA, and I definitely recommend anyone taking this course to come to him for assistance. Thanks for all your help Andrew!
- One of the best TAs I've ever had. You were such a useful resource for econ 100A. Honestly Thank you so much
- Outstanding TA!! Communicated well and was well prepared. Very helpful in learning and understand the course materials and questions.
- Review before every discussion was really helpful.
- was so helpful, posted long detailed answers online on how to do problems, very knowledgable of subject
